

SHOWBIZ NEWS

Court Issues Notice to Rhea Chakraborty in Case Filed by Sushant Singh Rajput's Sisters

Mumbai (News Desk): A Mumbai court has issued a notice to actress Rhea Chakraborty in a case filed by the late actor Sushant Singh Rajput’s sisters. According to Indian media reports, the notice pertains to the final report submitted by the Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) regarding Sushant’s death case. Rhea has been summoned to appear on August 12. The CBI had submitted its final report in March 2025. Reports state that issuing a notice is part of the legal process, giving complainants an opportunity to contest the investigators’ decision to close the case. Sushant’s sisters, Priyanka Singh and Meetu Singh, raised objections against Rhea and also named Dr. Tarun Nathuram, alleging he prescribed medication to Sushant without proper medical supervision. The court will further assess the matter after Rhea Chakraborty submits her response

Yashma Gill Reveals Komal Meer Receiving Marriage Proposals

Karachi (News Desk): Actress Yashma Gill made an interesting revelation about her friend, actress Komal Meer, during a comedy show appearance. While answering the host’s questions, Komal Meer also entered the set, prompting the host to jokingly ask, “Who is this?” Yashma responded, “Komal Meer is currently my friend and she’s receiving many marriage proposals. She’s an actress in high demand for households.” Yashma further added that people want to make Komal the queen of their homes, and she is trying to help arrange her marriage. When the host asked Yashma if she was single, she replied that she is currently single but does wish to get married.

Aamir Khan to Release 'Sitaare Zameen Par' on YouTube Movies on Demand

Mumbai (News Desk): Bollywood superstar Aamir Khan has announced that the premiere of his film Sitaare Zameen Par will be held on YouTube instead of any OTT platform. The film is a sequel to the 2007 hit Taare Zameen Par and was released in cinemas on June 20. However, Aamir has now confirmed that the movie will be available exclusively on YouTube Movies on Demand starting from August 1. The film will also be accessible in 38 countries including the USA, UK, Canada, Australia, Germany, and Singapore. Speaking about his decision to release the film on YouTube, Aamir Khan said that nearly 15 years ago, he realized that only about 2–3% of audiences watched blockbusters like 3 Idiots or Dangal in theaters. He added, “So the next thought I had was, how do we reach the remaining 97–98%? I want to make this convenience accessible to every Indian citizen.” It is worth mentioning that viewers have alleged that Sitaare Zameen Par is a remake of the 2023 Hollywood film Champions, which starred Woody Harrelson, as both films reportedly share a similar plotline and scenes.

30th Death Anniversary of Actress Nadira to Be Observed on August 6

Thatta Sadiqabad (News Desk): The 30th death anniversary of Lollywood’s beautiful film actress Nadira will be observed on August 6. Nadira was a beloved actress of the 1980s in Urdu and Punjabi cinema, and she showcased her acting talent in over sixty films, often starring opposite some of the most popular heroes of the time. Her on-screen pairing with the late film hero Ismail Shah was especially well-received. Nadira was tragically shot and killed by unidentified assailants in Liberty Market, Lahore, on August 6, 1995.

26th Death Anniversary of Renowned Playback Singer Ikhlq Ahmed on August 4

Thatta Sadiqabad (News Desk): The 26th death anniversary of famous Pakistani playback singer Ikhlq Ahmed will be observed on August 4. He began his singing career on stage in the 1960s and remained active in the world of music for many years. Ikhlq Ahmed rose to national fame through his songs in popular Pakistani films Bandish and Chahat. Among his most famous tracks are "Sawan Aaye Sawan Jaye" and "Sona Na Chandi Na Koi Mahal," which brought him immense popularity. He lent his voice to over 100 songs in more than 80 films, many of which are still remembered today. His iconic song "Sawan Aaye Sawan Jaye" continues to be played on the radio during pleasant weather. Ikhlq Ahmed passed away on August 4, 1999, after battling blood cancer.

Isha Koppikar Reveals Shocking Behind-the-Scenes Incident from 1998 Film "Chandralekha"

Mumbai (News Desk): Bollywood actress Isha Koppikar recently shared a surprising behind-the-scenes story from her early acting days. In an interview with Indian media, she revealed that during the shooting of the 1998 film Chandralekha alongside South Indian superstar Nagarjuna, she voluntarily asked to be slapped multiple times in order to bring realism to a scene. Isha said she was highly dedicated and wanted the performance to feel authentic, so she told Nagarjuna to slap her for real. Initially reluctant, Nagarjuna complied gently, but due to repeated takes—nearly 14 to 15 slaps—visible marks appeared on her face by the end of the shoot. She explained that she was struggling to portray the right level of anger, and the camera wasn’t capturing it for multiple retakes. Nagarjuna later apologized, but Isha reassured him, saying it was her own request. Isha Koppikar is known for her roles in Krishna Cottage, Pinjar, Kya Kool Hain Hum, and Don. She was last seen in the 2024 Tamil science fiction film Ayalaan.

Shruti Haasan Shares Emotional Note as Kamal Haasan Takes Oath as Rajya Sabha Member

New Delhi (News Desk): Popular Hindi and South Indian film actress Shruti Haasan penned an emotional note as her father, renowned actor, filmmaker, and politician Kamal Haasan, took oath as a member of India’s upper house of Parliament, the Rajya Sabha. Expressing her pride and love on Instagram, Shruti wrote, "Watching you take the oath in the Rajya Sabha, hearing your distinct voice echo in the hall with dignity and strength—this moment is forever etched in my mind." She added, "As always, I pray for your happiness and the fulfillment of all your wishes. Always love you." Along with the heartfelt message, she shared a smiling photo with her father and captioned it

Bushra Ansari Opens Up About Marriage, Childhood Dreams, and Life's Reality

Karachi (News Desk): Veteran actress Bushra Ansari, speaking on a private TV program, revealed that in her childhood, she considered marriage a beautiful dream, but real life proved otherwise. In the interview, she shared that she never scolds younger actors, explaining, “If I don’t scold my own children, why would I scold others?” She recalled being scolded once by actor Saleem Nasir during the shooting of the drama serial Aangan Terha, which brought tears to her eyes. Bushra said she has a sensitive heart and gets scared even by loud voices. Discussing marriage, she said she grew up watching her parents treat each other with love and respect, which led her to believe that everything after marriage would be perfect. However, reality turned out to be quite the opposite. She and her sisters often felt that their father had been unfair to them by letting them believe in fairy-tale marriages. Bushra mentioned that her first husband, Iqbal Ansari, was a good man and director, but like many traditional Pakistani men, he was shaped by cultural norms. She pointed out that such norms stem from mothers who raise boys to avoid housework while teaching girls to serve. Bushra Ansari was married to renowned producer Iqbal Ansari for 36 years before divorcing in 2020. The couple had two daughters. Later, she married actor Iqbal Hussain.

Controversial TikToker Rajab Butt’s Close Friends’ Private Videos Leaked, Stirring Social Media Outrage

Karachi (News Desk): Private and explicit videos of Pakistani TikToker Rajab Butt’s close friends have been leaked, shocking social media users. Following previous controversies involving female TikTokers, this time male influencers Haider Shah, Maan Dogar, and Shehzi have found themselves at the center of scandal as their completely nude videos circulate on TikTok and other platforms. Social media users have criticized the hypocrisy, pointing out that those who publicly appear religious are now seen in explicit content. In response, Rajab Butt and his friends claim their data was hacked and the videos were leaked without their consent.

However, questions are being raised about why such videos were made in the first place, especially since they were stored on their own devices. Some users allege that the leak may have come from someone within their circle. On social media platform X, tweets claim that in one video, Haider Shah appears to be exposing himself during a video call with none other than Rajab Butt himself. Meanwhile, Rajab Butt’s rumored relationship with fellow TikToker Zara Malik has also come under the spotlight. Reports suggest that Rajab is living with Zara in Dubai, raising allegations that he is cheating on his pregnant wife, Iman. The pair has been seen together frequently, including at a Qawwali night, and even appear to wear matching outfits, further fueling speculation about their closeness.