

YouTuber Azlan Shah Reveals 300+ Uninvited Guests Crashed His Wedding

Karachi (News Desk) – Pakistani YouTuber and social media influencer Azlan Shah — known for gifting a donkey to his bride on their wedding day — has revealed that over 300 uninvited guests showed up at his wedding. In a recent TV morning show appearance with his wife, influencer Dr. Warisha Javed Khan, Azlan shared some memorable wedding stories. He explained that their wedding invitation card was leaked on social media, leading to a massive influx of strangers at the event. “We invited around 300–400 people, but because the card went viral, almost 600 to 650 people turned up,”he said. “The hall capacity was only for about 300–400, so people had to sit on the floor. By the end, I was struggling to breathe in the crowd — but thankfully, the food didn’t run out.”Azlan Shah is the son of late veteran actor Shabbir Rana. He married Dr. Warisha Javed Khan in 2022, and the couple has a daughter together.

Allu Arjun Faces Backlash After Argument with Security at Mumbai Airport

Mumbai (News Desk) – Indian superstar Allu Arjun has landed in yet another controversy after reportedly clashing with a security officer at Mumbai Airport, drawing criticism from social media users. According to Indian media reports, the actor arrived at the airport to travel out of Mumbai while wearing a face mask. When a security officer asked him to remove it for identification, Arjun allegedly got into an argument. A video circulating online shows the Pushpa star debating with the officer before briefly lowering his mask at the insistence of an accompanying person — only to put it back on immediately. The viral clip has sparked a wave of criticism, with many social media users calling him “arrogant” and “egoistic,” while others advised him to follow the rules. This is not the first time the actor has faced controversy; in December last year, he was arrested and spent a night in jail following a stampede incident during a Pushpa 2 screening.

Salman Khan Celebrates Raksha Bandhan with Family in Mumbai

Mumbai (News Desk) – Bollywood superstar Salman Khan celebrated Raksha Bandhan at his home on Saturday, surrounded by his large family. The actor was seen smiling as his sisters tied rakhis on his wrist during the festivities. Fans on social media commented that Salman Khan looked smart, charming, and unchanged over the years. His sister Alvira and her husband, Atul Agnihotri, were also present. Atul shared pictures of the celebration on Instagram, capturing moments with children, elders, and the entire family enjoying the occasion. Salman’s niece, Alizeh, tied rakhis to several cousins, including Nirvaan and Arhaan (sons of Sohail Khan and Arbaaz Khan). Alvira Khan and Arpita also tied rakhis to Salman and Arbaaz. Atul Agnihotri posed for a photo with his own sister as well. For the celebration, Salman Khan kept his look casual, wearing a simple black T-shirt paired with blue jeans.

Hania Aamir and Asim Azhar Spark Speculation with Matching Chains and Instagram Posts

Karachi (News Desk) – Social media is abuzz with speculation over whether matching Instagram stories and identical necklaces worn by actress Hania Aamir and singer Asim Azhar are mere coincidence or something more. The duo, once romantically linked, made headlines again after Hania attended Asim Azhar’s recent concert. Their appearance together comes shortly after Asim’s breakup with model Merub Ali, which followed his earlier split with Hania. At the event, Asim performed on stage while Hania watched from the front row. According to viral videos, he sang several songs for her, including his new track Regardless upon her request. Fans have also noticed that both were spotted wearing similar chains on multiple occasions, and Hania recently posted an Instagram story featuring one of Asim’s songs. While some social media users are shipping the pair, others criticized the timing, suggesting Asim should have “maintained some dignity”so soon after a breakup, with one commenter sarcastically asking,“Where’s the self-respect?”

Alizeh Shah’s New Video Sparks Social Media Backlash

Karachi (News Desk) – Pakistani actress Alizeh Shah has once again found herself at the center of online controversy following the release of a new video that quickly went viral. Known for her bold fashion choices and outspoken statements, the Ehd-e-Wafa star has been a frequent topic of debate on social media. In recent weeks, Alizeh has already drawn attention for speaking openly about her past dispute with former co-star Minsa Malik and addressing an incident involving senior singer Shazia Manzoor during a ramp walk. Her latest viral clip shows a man feeding her, with his hand clearly visible in the frame. Many online users speculated that the hand belongs to her rumored boyfriend, with whom she has been previously photographed. The video prompted a wave of criticism, with some viewers calling it “pointless”and others nostalgically remarking that she is “no longer the innocent Dua”from Ehd-e-Wafa. As in the past, her choice of outfit also came under fire from certain segments of the audience.

Javeria Saud Reveals Husband’s Hilarious “Day-After-Wedding” Complaint

Karachi (News Desk) – Popular Pakistani actress Javeria Saud has shared a lighthearted anecdote about her wedding, revealing that her husband, actor Saud Qasmi, jokingly told her the day after their marriage, “I’ve been deceived.”The beloved showbiz couple, married since 2005, are known for their humor and strong bond. At the time, Saud was active in films while Javeria was making her mark in the drama industry. Speaking at a recent event, Javeria amused the audience by recalling how she struggled to reach the stage until a brick was placed for her to step on, joking that she has been “standing on bricks since 1993.”She went on to explain that on her wedding day, she wore six-inch heels so she could match Saud’s height — but the very next day, he playfully complained about her real height. The clip of her story quickly went viral on social media, sparking mixed reactions. While some viewers laughed it off, others called it a form of gender stereotyping, and a few quipped that “everyone in the industry is four feet tall, but cameras make them look taller.”

Former Actress Arij Fatyma Opens Up About Rare Cancer Diagnosis and Difficult Battle

Karachi (News Desk) – Former Pakistani actress Arij Fatyma has, for the first time, shared details of her battle with a rare and aggressive form of cancer, Choriocarcinoma, and the hardships she and her family faced over the past four months. In a heartfelt video posted on Instagram, Arij revealed that her life had been going smoothly and joyfully until a sudden diagnosis changed everything within hours. She shared images from her journey, explaining that she had avoided speaking about it earlier out of fear of judgment, rumors, and blame. Choriocarcinoma, as she described, is a rare cancer originating in the uterus tissue, often developing after a molar pregnancy. It can spread quickly to other parts of the body, making it extremely dangerous. Arij said she underwent major surgery and, during treatment, was uncertain whether she would survive. Her only thoughts were about how she would stand before her Creator and what would happen to her family if she did not make it. Calling this her “second life,” she expressed gratitude for recovery while acknowledging that only she and her family truly know the depth of the pain and fear they endured.

Fawad Khan’s Delayed Film “Abir Galal” to Release on August 29 Under New Title

Mumbai (News Desk) – Indian media has claimed that Pakistani superstar Fawad Khan’s long-delayed and controversial film Abir Galal will now release on August 29, 2025, under a slightly modified title Abeer Galal. The film was originally set for release on May 12, but its launch was postponed following the April terrorist attack on tourists in Pahalgam, Indian-administered Kashmir, which left several dead. The Indian government blamed Pakistan for the incident —a charge Pakistan has repeatedly denied. In the aftermath, India imposed bans on Pakistani artists and YouTube channels. As Fawad Khan played the lead role, Abir Galal faced an indefinite suspension. However, according to a Times of India report, the movie will now premiere globally, excluding India, due to the ongoing backlash against Pakistani talent. Industry experts note that the release model will follow that of Sardaar Ji 3, a Punjabi film starring Diljit Dosanjh and Pakistani actress Hania Aamir, which was not released in India but achieved significant success internationally.

