Mumbai (News Desk) — Rumors of Bollywood actor Govinda’s divorce from his wife Sunita Ahuja have resurfaced, but the actor’s manager Shashi Sinha has denied them, calling the reports baseless and rooted in old matters. According to Indian media, Sinha clarified that although Sunita had once submitted documents in court, the issue was resolved at an early stage and their relationship is now back to normal. He emphasized that there is no divorce and everything is improving, adding that soon there will be good news for fans. He said old stories are being given new color and circulated again, whereas no such incident has recently taken place. The manager further stated that Govinda has neither appeared in court nor has Sunita, apart from the initial filing, and the couple is currently focused on their children’s weddings and careers. It is worth noting that earlier this year in February, similar separation reports had surfaced, and in October last year, Govinda was accidentally injured while cleaning his gun at home.

Lahore (News Desk) Pakistani superstar Fawad Khan and Indian actress Vaani Kapoor’s much-awaited romantic film Abeer Gulal has finally secured a new worldwide release date. Directed by Aarti S. Bagdi and produced by Vivek B. Agarwal, the film will be released on September 12, 2025, across more than 1,000 screens in 75 countries. Initially scheduled for release on August 29, the film was delayed due to tensions between India and Pakistan, leading to its suspension in India. However, it will now hit theaters worldwide except in India. In Pakistan, Abeer Gulal will still release on August 29, where fans eagerly await its premiere. The film’s music, composed by Amit Trivedi, has already been released and is gaining popularity ahead of its launch.

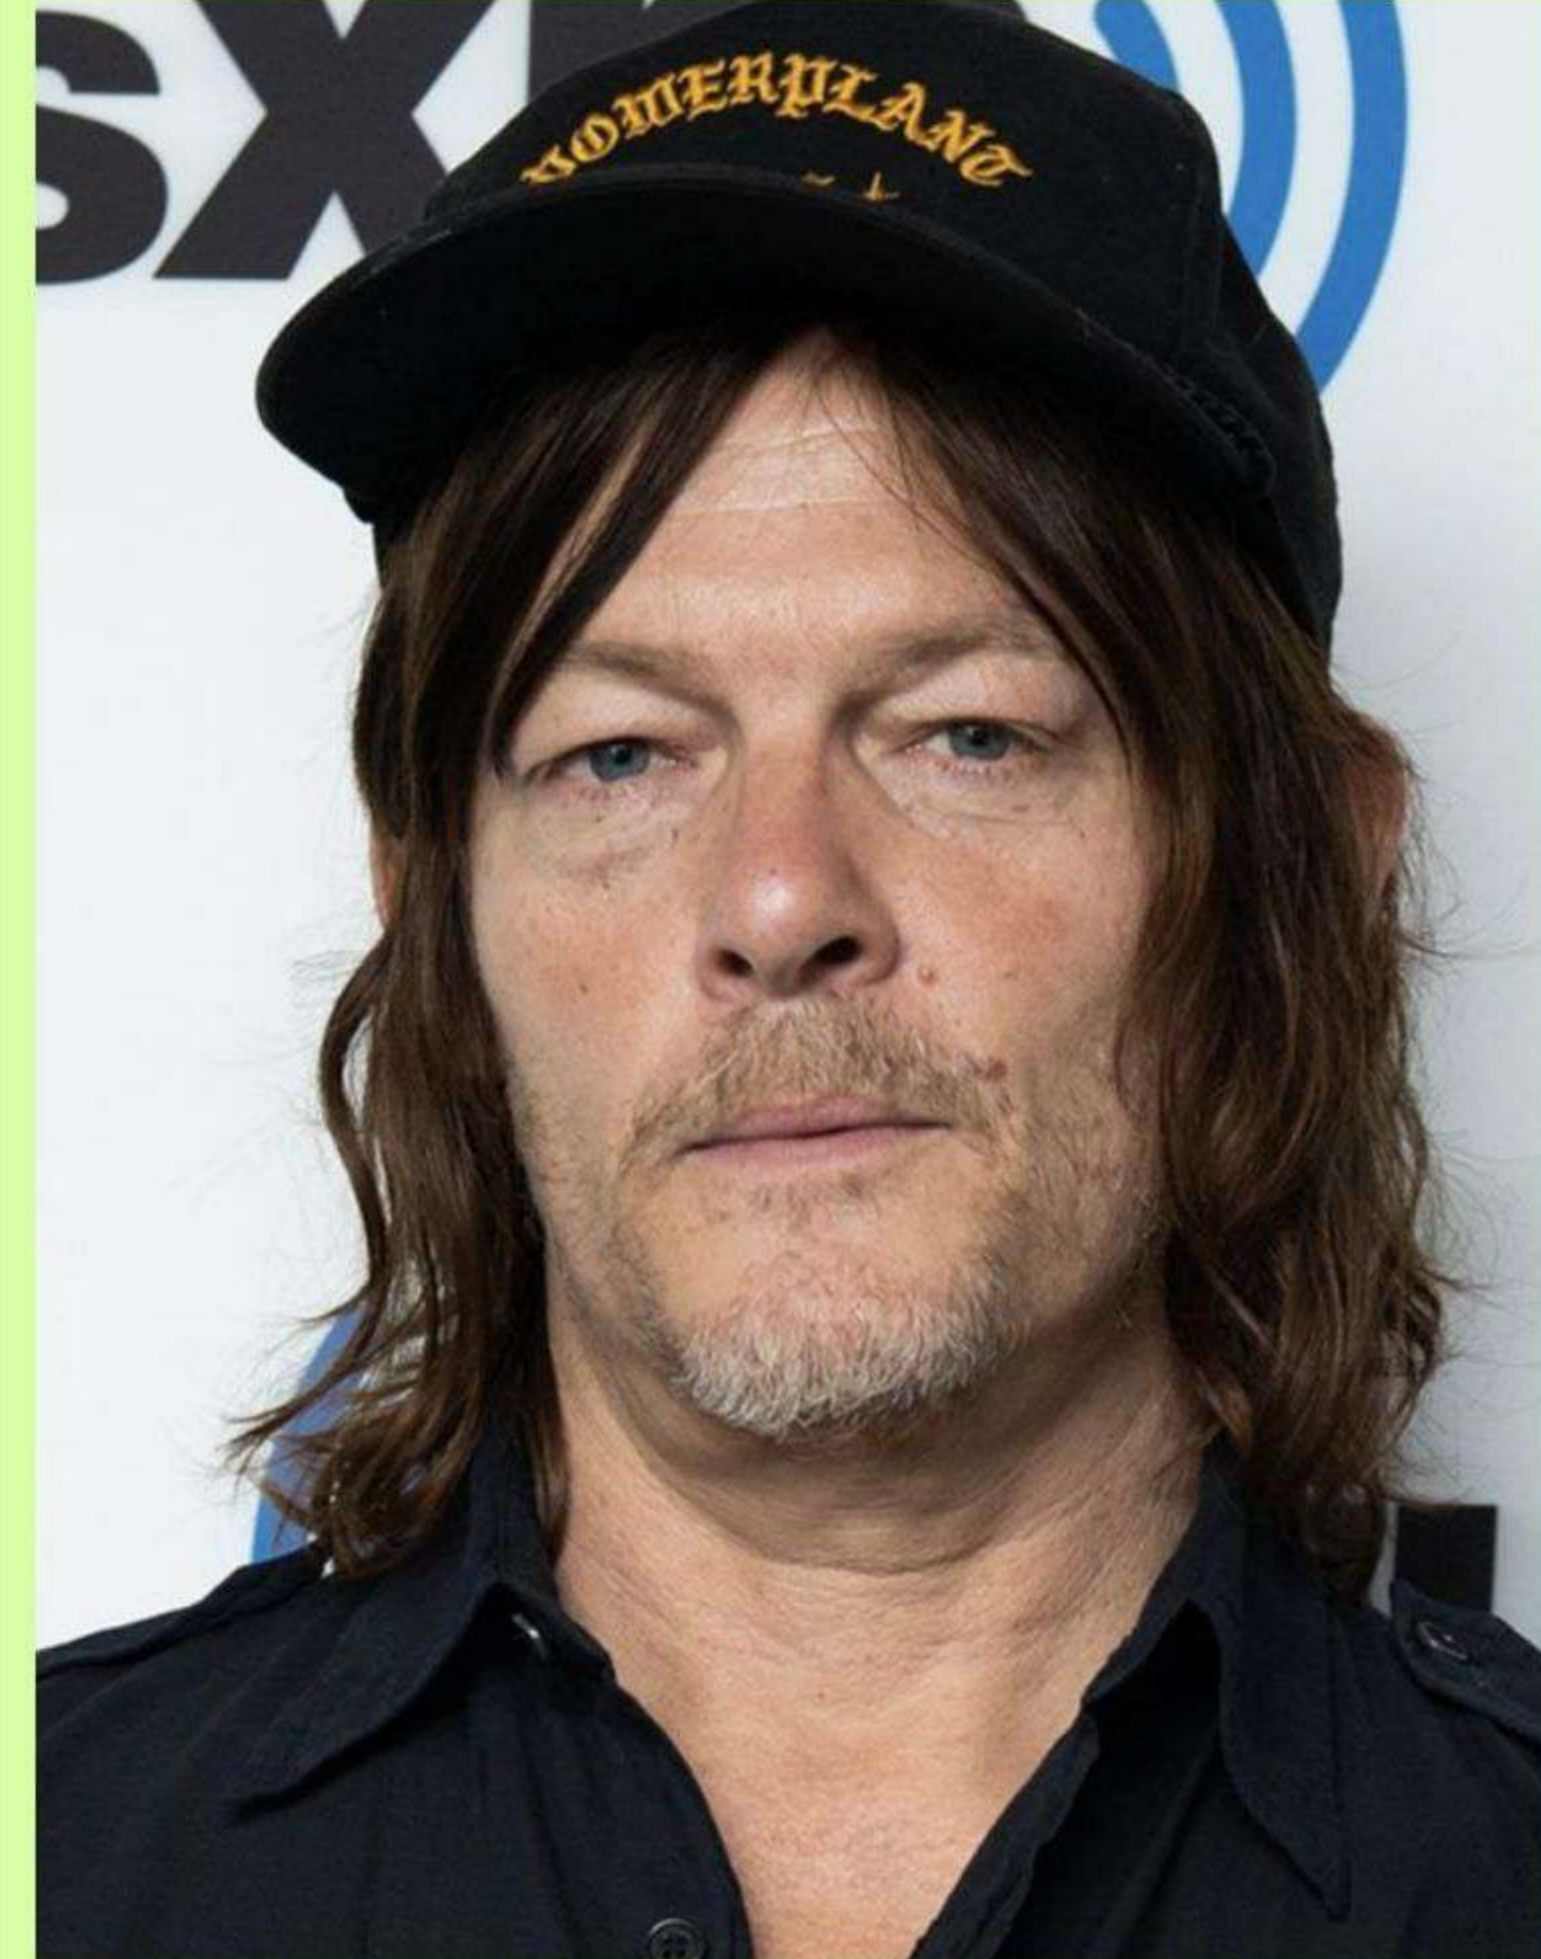

Venice (News Desk) Diego Borilla, the 47-year-old assistant director of the Hollywood romantic comedy-drama series Emily in Paris, tragically passed away on set after suffering a sudden heart attack. The incident occurred on Thursday, August 21, 2025, at the historic Hotel Danieli in Italy, where filming for the show’s fifth season was underway. Despite immediate medical efforts, Borilla could not be revived, and his death was confirmed at around 7:30 p.m. The fifth season’s shoot, which began in Venice on August 15 and was scheduled to conclude by August 25, has been temporarily halted following the tragedy. Reports indicate that production will resume after Borilla’s funeral, with the new season slated for release on Netflix on December 18, 2025.

hundreds of influencers promoted such apps, yet only easy targets were being arrested, questioning why agencies were not pursuing the “big fish.”Rajab Butt also extended his best wishes to Ducky Bhai and his family during this difficult time.

Karachi (News Desk) Pakistani YouTuber Rajab Butt has reacted to the arrest of his former friend and fellow content creator Saad ur Rehman, popularly known as Ducky Bhai, who was recently taken into custody by law enforcement agencies in connection with a betting app case. Once close friends often seen together in videos and family gatherings, the two parted ways after a dispute over a joint project and a controversial statement by Ducky Bhai. Following his arrest and placement on physical remand for investigation, Rajab Butt stated that the law should be equal for everyone. He further highlighted that

New York (News Desk) Hollywood actor Norman Reedus’ son, Mingus Lucien Reedus, has been arrested in the U.S. on charges of assaulting his girlfriend. According to police, the 25-year-old allegedly punched his 33-year-old girlfriend, strangled her, and slammed her to the ground, causing serious injuries that required hospitalization. The incident took place on Saturday morning in Manhattan, where Mingus himself initially called police claiming the woman had attempted suicide by overdosing on pills. However, the woman later told authorities that the attack was carried out by Mingus. Reports indicate this is not the first time he has faced such allegations; in 2021, he was also accused of punching a woman, after which he was released on conditional bail. Alongside modeling, Mingus has recently ventured into music and released several tracks on Spotify earlier this year.

Mumbai (News Desk) Bollywood superstar Shah Rukh Khan’s mother-in-law, Savita Chhiba, has charmed fans with her graceful dance moves. The video, shared by Gauri Khan’s niece Alia Chhiba, shows the 84-year-old dancing joyfully with her son. Alongside the clip, Alia wrote that her two favorites to “gym with” are a true inspiration, adding that now everyone knows where she gets it from — it’s in the genes. The delightful jugalbandi between mother and son received immense praise from viewers, who admired Savita Chhiba’s confidence and energy. Fans expressed their joy, calling her steps beautiful and uplifting. While Shah Rukh Khan was already in the spotlight for the trailer launch of his son Aryan Khan’s debut series, his mother-in-law’s lively dance has now captured headlines. One fan commented, “Oh my God, this is amazing, now I understand why Gauri Khan is so confident,” while another praised, “Wow, this is wonderful — so cute and full of energy.”
