Filmmaker Syed Noor Denies Casting Allegations, Reveals Falling for Saima on 'Ghonghat' Set

Lahore (News Desk): Filmmaker Syed Noor has once again dismissed claims that he favors his wife, actress Saima, by casting her as the lead in every film. He revealed that his admiration for Saima began during the shooting of the film Ghonghat. In a recent appearance on Ahmed Ali Butt's podcast, Noor spoke openly about various matters, clarifying that Saima was given roles of older women before her time and was made the heroine of late Sultan Rahi's Punjabi films through makeup to appear older than her actual age. He shared that when he made Ghonghat in 1997 both Saima and co-star Shan were considered flops

Jennifer Aniston Reveals Secret Behind Timeless Beauty

New York (News Desk): Hollywood actress Jennifer Aniston has revealed the secret behind maintaining her beauty and fitness. According to foreign media, the 56-year-old actress shared in an interview ahead of the release of Season 4 of The Morning Show how she has managed to preserve her health and charm over the years. French actress Marion Cotillard had earlier praised Aniston, saying she is among the women who have aged gracefully with time. Expressing delight, Jennifer said, "That means a lot to me. When it comes to aging gracefully, I think I have an endless reservoir of hope and positivity — you can even call it youthfulness." She emphasized that it all begins with self-love and embracing individuality. She admitted that she does take facials and laser treatments, but stressed that she never gives up on self-care or allows gray hair to dominate her. "It's the mindset that keeps you young and beautiful," she added. Jennifer compared working on new TV show seasons to motherhood, saying that each year she thinks she won't return, but eventually forgets and signs on again. It is noteworthy that Aniston had previously admitted in 2015 to trying Botox, and in April 2025, she revealed on her show that she exercises daily to maintain her fitness and beauty.

Actress Zhalay Sarhadi Criticizes Ducky Bhai, Defends Hania Aamir in Viral Stunt Controversy

Karachi (News Desk): Pakistani actress and model Zhalay Sarhadi, known for speaking openly on social issues, has shared her views on the ongoing controversy involving actress Hania Aamir and YouTuber Ducky Bhai. In an interview with a private magazine's podcast, Zhalay discussed various matters, including the recent viral videos of both celebrities. Hania Aamir's video of performing a stunt while standing on a moving bike went viral, while Ducky Bhai was seen driving a car with his eyes closed and feet on the wheel in another clip. When asked about celebrities posting such risky videos merely for views, Zhalay responded that when famous personalities share content on social media, it inevitably influences the public. "Celebrities may say it's a personal act, but it never remains personal, as people are affected by it in one way or another," she said. Explaining further, she noted that actors often have behind-the-scenes videos or pictures from shoots that go viral unintentionally, as was the case with Hania, so she should not be blamed. However, she strongly criticized Ducky Bhai, stating that "he has done many wrong things just for views, which is why he is now behind bars." Zhalay advised newcomers to avoid engaging in such irresponsible activities for fame.

Indian TV Actor Ashish Kapoor Arrested on Rape Charges

Mumbai (News Desk): Indian television actor Ashish Kapoor has been arrested by Delhi Police on charges of rape. According to Indian media, he is accused of sexually assaulting a woman inside a washroom during a party last month. Police stated that Ashish Kapoor first got acquainted with the woman through Instagram, after which he invited her to a party at a friend's house where the alleged incident took place. Initially, the woman's FIR named Ashish Kapoor, his friend, the friend's wife, and two unidentified individuals, but she later changed her statement, alleging that only Ashish Kapoor had assaulted her. Reports also claim that the woman alleged the incident was recorded on video, but police have not found any such footage. Authorities confirmed that the investigation is ongoing. Ashish Kapoor is a well-known Indian television actor, having appeared in several popular dramas, including Love Marriage Ya Arranged Marriage, Dekha Ek Khwaab, and Chand Chhupa Badal Mein.

Actress Mawra Hussain Advises Brides on Choosing Wedding Dress

Karachi (News Desk): Renowned Pakistani actress Mawra Hussain has shared valuable advice for girls aspiring to get married regarding their bridal attire. While attending the launch of a brand, Mawra advised that brides should not stress over their wedding dresses and instead wear something within their means. She emphasized that brides should avoid comparing themselves to others and worrying about how expensive someone else's outfit was, saying, "You are the bride — whatever you wear will look beautiful." Speaking about her in-laws, Mawra revealed that earlier she did not value family heritage much, but on her wedding day she felt immense joy wearing her mother-in-law's bridal dress along with her grandmother-in-law's jewelry. She also expressed her desire to pass on these cherished heirlooms to her future daughter or daughter-in-law. It is worth mentioning that actress Mawra Hussain tied the knot with actor Ameer Gillani on February 5, 2025, in Lahore.

Actress Maria Malik Speaks Out on Harassment in Showbiz

Karachi (News Desk): Rising Pakistani actress Maria Malik has opened up about harassment faced by women in the entertainment industry. In a recent interview with a YouTube channel, Maria shared her experiences and observations about the industry. She revealed that when she entered the industry three years ago, she aimed for lead roles, but production houses often offered her supporting roles. When she refused, she noticed a change in their behavior. When asked if the industry is safe for women, Maria stated that it is both safe and unsafe. She said that personally, she hasn't faced harassment, so she couldn't comment extensively, but in today's social media era, people are cautious about wrongdoing. She acknowledged hearing about harassment incidents in the industry, indicating that it is unsafe in some areas. Maria added that to avoid such situations, she keeps interactions limited and focuses solely on her work.
