

Humayun Saeed Opens Up About Family Struggles and Gratitude Amid Success

Karachi (News Desk) – Senior actor Humayun Saeed revealed that he has witnessed extremely difficult times in his life, particularly when his younger brother became disabled after an accident, and he had to visit multiple hospitals seeking free treatment. In a recent interview with Fuchsia Magazine, Saeed spoke candidly about his life, career, and struggles. He shared that whenever he achieves success, he feels very close to Allah. He recalled a time when he was only seventeen or eighteen years old, his father’s business suddenly collapsed, and his brother, just two years younger than him, suffered severe spinal injury from a fall. Following this, Saeed worked tirelessly, tutoring students and working in a factory to support the family. He described how he took his brother to various hospitals to secure free treatment and even befriended hospital staff to ensure continuous care. His brother remains disabled to this day, and his treatment continues. Humayun Saeed expressed deep gratitude for his current position, attributing every success to Allah, and maintains the tradition of Quran recitation at home to thank God for his blessings. He humbly acknowledged that he owes everything to Allah and stated that he remains the same Humayun Saeed he was 35 years ago, carrying the spirit of his youth with him even today.

Former India Captain MS Dhoni Set to Star Alongside Actor R. Madhavan in Upcoming Project The Chase

Hyderabad (News Desk) – Fans of former Indian cricket captain MS Dhoni are in for a surprise as he is set to appear in a new project alongside Bollywood actor R. Madhavan. After making his mark in cricket and advertisements, Dhoni is now stepping into a new venture directed by Vishnubala, generating widespread discussion among his fans. On September 7, Madhavan shared a teaser of the project The Chase on social media, featuring Dhoni as an action hero. Madhavan captioned the teaser, “One mission, two warriors, fasten your seat belts, an explosive chase is about to begin. Directed by Vishnubala. Coming soon.” The teaser portrays Dhoni and Madhavan as task force officers, with Dhoni shown as a cool-headed senior officer while Madhavan plays a more romantic character. Both are seen on a mission in action mode, though it remains unclear whether the project is a film, series, or something else. Despite limited information, fans are eager to find out if Dhoni has indeed begun his acting career with Vishnubala’s The Chase alongside R. Madhavan.

Dr. Nabiha Ali Khan Announces Engagement and Upcoming Second Marriage Amid Social Media Buzz

Karachi (News Desk) – Renowned psychologist, social media influencer, and former news anchor Dr. Nabiha Ali Khan has once again become the center of attention in the news. Known for her bold opinions and controversial statements, she often remains a topic of discussion on TV and digital platforms. Amid the recent heavy rains, her house was also affected by flooding, bringing her into the social media spotlight once again, but this time for a different reason. During an interview on her YouTube channel, Dr. Nabiha Ali Khan made a significant announcement regarding her second marriage. She revealed that she is engaged and will soon be tying the knot. She stated, "My marriage is finalized. Some people are spreading rumors that I am already married for the second time, but that is not true. My plans are set, and I will be getting married soon." Acknowledging the importance of a man in a woman’s life, she said, "I believe that a woman cannot live a completely solitary life. Every woman needs a man. No matter how brave a woman is, she needs the support of a man." Dr. Nabiha further emphasized that there should be no competition between men and women, and both should respect each other’s roles and positions. According to her, in such a scenario, a man can also provide love and respect to a woman even if there are differences. If there is a disagreement with a woman, it can be resolved with love and understanding, and she will accept it. Following this statement, social media erupted with reactions from her fans. Dr. Nabiha Ali Khan’s announcement of her second marriage has delighted her followers, who are now eagerly waiting for details regarding the wedding date and other information.

Film The Voice of Hind Rajab Wins Second Prize at Venice Film Festival

Rome (News Desk) – The film The Voice of Hind Rajab, centered on the Gaza war, has been awarded the second prize at the Venice Film Festival. According to Arab media, director Ben Haniya paid tribute to a Palestinian victim girl through this film. Presented at the festival held in Italy, this remarkable film tells the true story of a 5-year-old Palestinian girl who was martyred by Israeli occupation forces during their attacks on Gaza. The film was directed by Tanzanian-French director Kater Ben Haniya. The Voice of Hind Rajab became the most discussed film at the festival and even received a 23-minute standing ovation. The film was honored with the Silver Lion Prize at the Venice Film Festival.

From Sleeping at Railway Stations to Owning Four Homes: TV Actor Yogesh Tripathi’s Incredible Journey

Mumbai (News Desk) – In India’s TV industry, one actor’s income and journey have surprised everyone. While the glitz of showbiz often showcases wealth, it is backed by years of struggle. One such actor, Yogesh Tripathi, once had no home to live in, earned just ₹95 a day, and spent nights at Mumbai’s Chhatrapati Shivaji Terminus railway station. Media reports reveal that Tripathi, who moved from Uttar Pradesh to Mumbai in 2004, sold pens for ₹150, worked as a background artist earning ₹1,500 per show, and sometimes managed only ₹95 a day. The actor shared, “I didn’t start from zero, I started from minus. I lied to my father saying I was taking a computer course while actually working in theater as an actor.” Today, the actor who once earned ₹95 a day owns four homes in Mumbai and earns ₹2.4 million per month. Yogesh Tripathi gained fame in 2007 through an advertisement and later secured a role in the Indian drama E.I.R, after which his career skyrocketed. He earned widespread recognition for his role as Hapu Singh in the drama serial Bhabhi Ji Ghar Par Hain and became one of the highest-paid TV actors. According to Indian media, Tripathi’s earnings reach ₹3 crore, and he owns four properties in Mumbai. Reflecting on his journey, the actor said, “I never took a loan; everything I achieved came through hard work and patience.”

Atif Aslam Responds to Criticism Over Performing Concert After Father’s Death

Lahore (News Desk) – World-renowned Pakistani singer Atif Aslam has responded to critics who questioned his decision to perform at a concert shortly after his father’s passing. Last month, Aslam’s father passed away in Lahore, and the very next day, the singer performed at a concert held at Karachi’s cricket stadium to celebrate Independence Day. While many fans praised him for fulfilling his professional commitments despite personal loss, others criticized him for performing so soon. Speaking from Canada, where he is currently on his concert tour, Atif Aslam gave an interview to Canada-based Indian host and journalist Fareedoon Shahriar, addressing the criticism strongly. He said, “After my father’s passing, everyone had something to say about me performing the very next day. What is happening in my house has nothing to do with them.” He further added, “It is not my job to tell others what to do or not do. I cannot maintain relationships with the whole world. My work is art. Like me for my art, like or dislike my music, but don’t tell me what I should do.”

Kareena Kapoor Khan Reveals Preference for Atif Aslam If She Appeared in a Music Video

Mumbai (News Desk) – Bollywood superstar Kareena Kapoor Khan, hailing from the legendary Kapoor family that has ruled the Indian film industry for generations, is admired worldwide for her distinctive acting and charismatic personality. Her performances in films like Kabhi Khushi Kabhie Gham and Jab We Met continue to captivate audiences to this day. Recently, Kareena Kapoor attended the inauguration of a jewelry store in Birmingham, UK, where a large number of her Indian and Pakistani fans gathered to see her and meet her in person. The area seemed to come to a standstill as fans thronged the streets for almost three hours just to catch a glimpse of the actress. During the event, Kareena was asked an intriguing question: who does she prefer more between Pakistani singers Atif Aslam and Ali Zafar? She was also asked if she had ever appeared in a Pakistani singer’s music video before gaining fame. The question, reportedly generated by ChatGPT, left everyone present surprised, and even Kareena paused momentarily. Smiling, she replied that if she had ever done so, she would have preferred to appear in an Atif Aslam music video. The crowd applauded her answer enthusiastically. This has sparked curiosity among fans about which song Kareena Kapoor would have chosen if she ever appeared in a music video, leaving the question open to imagination.